

Mr. Pankaj Kumar Singh

Research Officer

pankaj.bhu@gmail.com

Mr. Pankaj Kumar Singh holds his Master's degree in Social Work (MSW) from Banaras Hindu University (BHU), Varanasi, Certificate Course in Research Methodology (CRM) from Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS), Mumbai, Diploma in Business Management from ICFAI University.

Before joining Centre for Consumer Studies, IIPA he worked with National University of Educational Planning and Administration (NUEPA), New Delhi as a Research Associate in various project on Higher and Secondary Education.

Mr. Singh has been involved in a number of research and evaluation studies related to social developmental issues, service delivery mechanism, and public policy issues. He has also presented quite a few papers in different National Seminars/ Symposiums on consumer importance. He is actively involved in research and documentation in the field of Consumer Affairs. He has acquired the expertise in Quantitative Method of Research by using different statistical applications.

His major areas of interest are: Social Developmental issues, delivery of public services, school management & administration, consumer affaires, market research, data management (mining and analysis with SPSS).